some buildings thereon and dwelling house handsomely furnished. The furniture to be sold as a whole with the real estate.

This property is about one and one-half miles from Somerset, Va., a station of the main line of the Southern Reflection about to miles from Weshingtont, D. C. and 50 miles from Richmond, Va.

This is one of the handsomest and best equipped estates in Virginia, the dwelling house being of Tennesses granite, three stories high, containing 20 rooms, large reception hall, three bath rooms; the whole house being supplied with water and heated with steam, also grates for open fires. The house is lighted throughout with electricity, is situated on a high and commanding prospect, with splendid view of the Blue Ridge Modurtains and the Rapidan Valley. Situated near the house is a gray stone water tower, with observatory; large gray one stable, having stall room for 11 horses, with rooms for vehicles, harness, grooms and stable boys. A few hundred yards in the rear of the dwelling is a large frame barn and training stable, in which is room for 16 horses and room for storage for grain and hay and also rooms for attendants; water all through the buildings. The addition to the foregoing buildings there are six good tenant houses on this property two of them being nice residences, with harns and outbuildings attached. On the property is a large artificial lake, handsome brown stone lodge, house for electric plant, training track and several beautiful groves, in addition to other valuable timber. The land has been farmed as whole, but can be very advantageously divided into small rarms. It is well watered and fenced, the fence along its whole, but can be very advantageously divided into small tarms.
